1 INTRODUCTION

This Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) applies to any CCG staff or contractors using Embed IT systems, computer equipment and network services. This includes employed staff, temporary staff and contractors granted access, including access to the guest wireless. It is designed to protect the CCG our employees, customers and other partners from harm caused by the misuse of our IT systems and our data. Misuse includes both deliberate and inadvertent actions.

The repercussions of misuse of our systems can be severe. Potential damage includes, but is not limited to, malware infection (e.g. computer viruses), legal and financial penalties for data leakage, and lost productivity resulting from network downtime. Everyone who works at the CCG is responsible for the security of our IT systems and the data on them. As such, all employees must ensure they adhere to the guidelines in this policy at all times. Should any employee be unclear on the policy or how it impacts their role they should speak to their manager or the Information Governance Team.

“Systems” means all IT equipment that connects to the corporate network or access corporate applications. This includes, but is not limited to, desktop computers, laptops, smartphones, tablets, printers, data and voice networks, networked devices, software, electronically-stored data, portable data storage devices, third party networking services, telephone handsets, video conferencing systems, and all other similar items commonly understood to be covered by this term.

2 ENGAGEMENT

This policy has been developed based on the knowledge and experience of the Information Governance team. It is derived from a number of national codes and policies which are considered as best practice and have been used across many public sector organisations.

3 IMPACT ANALYSES

3.1 Equality

An equality impact screening analysis has been carried out on this policy and is attached at Appendix 1.

As a result of performing the analysis, the policy, project or function does not appear to have any adverse effects on people who share Protected Characteristics and no further actions are recommended at this stage.

3.2 Sustainability

The policy has been assessed against the CCG’s sustainability themes using a sustainable impact assessment (SIA) and there is no anticipated detrimental impact. The results of the SIA are published with the policy on the CCG website.

3.3 Bribery Act 2010

The Bribery Act 2010 makes it a criminal offence to bribe or be bribed by another person by offering or requesting a financial or other advantage as a reward or incentive to perform a relevant function or activity improperly performed.

The penalties for any breaches of the Act are potentially severe. There is no upper limit on the level of fines that can be imposed and an individual convicted of an offence can face a prison sentence of up to 10 years.

The Bribery Act does not apply to this policy.

4 SCOPE

- All employees of the CCG
- CCG Governing Body
- Contracted third parties (including eMBED and agency staff)
- Students and trainees
- Staff on secondment and other staff on placement with the CCG

5 POLICY PURPOSE AND AIMS

5.1 Internet/Intranet Access.

Access is provided to the internet through a secure gateway operated by the Embed IMT. The Embed operates a secure firewall and a range of technical systems to attempt to reduce the risk posed by hackers, criminals and fraudsters who may attempt to attack our systems. Users are advised that the primary purpose for the provision of the internet service is for work related matters. As a secondary use users are permitted to utilise the system for their own personal use subject to compliance with the conditions set out at point 5.2. In addition users are advised that this personal use is classed as a privilege which can be removed and is also subject to monitoring as set out in section 10.

5.2 Social Media

Social media is the social interaction among people in which they create, share or exchange information and ideas in virtual communities and networks. This has taken on many forms in the last 10 years and includes sites such as Facebook and Twitter. The use of social media is increasing within society and has become a common method for people to communicate with each other. Social media offers great opportunities for organisations and individuals to listen and have conversations with people they wish to influence. The NHS has steadily embraced the use of social media to allow them to better engage with service users. Below are some points to be taken into consideration when using social media for both business and personal purposes.

Employees are personally responsible for the content they publish on blogs, wikis or any other form of user-generated media. Be mindful that what you publish will be public for a long time. When online, use the same principles and standards that you would apply to communicating in other media with people you do not know. If you wouldn't say something in an email or formal letter, don't say it online.

Always identify yourself when using social media for work purposes by giving your name and, when relevant, role within the organisation.

If you are discussing the organisation or organisation related matters in a personal post you should also identify your role within the organisation as above. Write in the first person. You must make it clear that you are speaking for yourself and not on behalf of the organisation.

If you publish content to any website outside of the organisation that could be perceived to have a connection to the work you do or subjects associated with the organisation, use a disclaimer such as this:

"My postings on this site reflect my personal views and don't necessarily represent the positions, strategies or opinions of the organisation."

Respect copyright, fair use, data protection, defamation, libel and financial disclosure laws.

Don't provide the organisation's or another's confidential or other proprietary information on external websites.

Do not publish or report on conversations that are private or internal to the organisation (for example, do not quote such material in a discussion forum post).

Respect your audience. Don't use personal insults, obscenities, or engage in any conduct that would not be acceptable in the workplace. You should also show proper consideration for others' privacy and for topics that may be considered objectionable or inflammatory, such as politics and religion.

Don't pick fights, be the first to correct your own mistakes, and don't change previous posts without indicating that you have done so.

If you read something online that you feel is factually incorrect, inaccurate or otherwise needs an official response from the organisation, then you must refer the matter to the Communications Team

Personal use of social media for should only occur during your own time such as during lunch breaks.

There are no restrictions on naming the organisation that you work for but it should be considered carefully what is said in regards to your employer.

If you feel that there is an issue that needs addressing within the organisation then it is advised that you discuss this with your line manager. If this is not appropriate then concerns can be raised through the organisations whistle blowing policy.

Do not post anything that is libellous or that cannot be supported with evidence. Such actions may be seen as bringing the organisation into disrepute and could lead to disciplinary actions.

5.3 Inappropriate Use

Inappropriate Use of Computer/IT Services. The use of computers and internet services in the following types of activities is specifically prohibited:

- Plugging in personal equipment into a work device
- Accessing Non-work related third party applications from work devices
- Accessing personal email systems or personal social media accounts from work devices
- Illegal, fraudulent, or malicious activities.
- Partisan political activity, political or religious lobbying or advocacy or activities on behalf of organisations having no connection with the CCG.
- Unauthorised fund-raising or similar activities, whether for commercial, personal, or charitable purposes.
- Accessing, storing, processing, displaying, or distributing offensive or obscene material such as pornography and hate literature.
- Using another person's account or identity without his or her explicit permission, e.g., by forging e-mail.
- Viewing, damaging, or deleting files belonging to others without appropriate authorisation or permission.
- Attempting to circumvent or defeat security or auditing systems without prior authorisation and other than as part of legitimate system testing or security research.
- Obtaining, installing, storing, or using software obtained in violation of the appropriate vendor's patent, copyright, trade secret, or license agreement.
- Use of mobiles/smartphones whilst driving (with or without hands free equipment)

6 IMPLEMENTATION

This policy will be published on the CCG website and all staff will be made aware of its publication through communications and team meetings.

Breaches of this policy may be investigated and may result in the matter being treated as a disciplinary offence under the CCG's disciplinary procedure.

7 TRAINING AND AWARENESS

The Senior Management Team and line managers are responsible for ensuring that all staff are aware of the policy which will be available on the CCG intranet.

8 MONITORING AND AUDIT

Users are advised that all computer use, including e-mail and internet access is monitored and that staff are advised that in accordance with the Employment Practices Data Protection Code monitoring of Internet use will take place subject to the following guidance:

- All audits carried out will be documented.
- Monitoring is required to ensure that employees do not breach any regulations (such as those on harassment) which could have a legal impact on the CCG.
- Traffic will be monitored as opposed to content unless there are reasons for doing otherwise.
- The Internet History on a local computer is to be set to retain information for 20 days (this is the default setting). Users are not to clear, delete or otherwise change the settings on the History settings on their PC. Such action may lead to further detailed examination of the system being necessary.
- Inappropriate use of the Internet services may result in either facility being withdrawn and may constitute an offence under the CCG disciplinary code.
- Spot checks will be done as opposed to continuous monitoring.

8.1 Virus Protection.

IMT will ensure that the appropriate technical steps are taken to reduce the vulnerability of the CCG system to attack from computer viruses. Users are expected to play their part by being aware of the problem of viruses and reporting anything they deem to be suspicious to the IT Helpdesk.

9 POLICY REVIEW

The policy and procedure will be reviewed at least every three years by the CCG in conjunction with managers, and Trade Union representatives if appropriate, with changes made as required and the outcome published. Where review is necessary due to legislative change, this will happen immediately.

Audit and Governance Committee has delegated responsibility for monitoring and reviewing the policy and will report any concerns to the Governing Body.

Sexual Orientation	In relation to sexual orientation, local population data is not known with any certainty. In part, this is because until recently national and local surveys of the population and people using services did not ask about an individual's sexual orientation. However, nationally, the Government estimates that 5% of the population are lesbian, gay or bisexual communities.
Gender Reassignment	There are not any official statistics nationally or regionally regarding transgender populations, however, GIRES (Gender Identity Research and Education Society - www.gires.org.uk ) estimated that, in 2007, the prevalence of people who had sought medical care for gender variance was 20 per 100,000, i.e. 10,000 people, of whom 6,000 had undergone transition. 80% were assigned as boys at birth (now trans women) and 20% as girls (now trans men). However, there is good reason, based on more recent data from the individual gender identity clinics, to anticipate that the gender balance may eventually become more equal.

SUSTAINABILITY IMPACT ASSESSMENT

Instructions

Sustainability is one of the CCG's key priorities and consequently the CCG has made a corporate commitment to address the environmental effects of its activities across all service areas. The purpose of the Sustainability Impact Assessment is to record any positive or negative impacts that a Policy / Board Report / Committee Report / Service Plan / Project is likely to have on each of the CCG's sustainability themes. The Sustainability Impact Assessment enables any relevant impacts to be identified and potentially managed.

The Sustainability Impact Assessment is based on assessing the impact of the activity against a series of criteria covering environmental sustainability issues. It would be most desirable for activities to score positively in as many areas as possible, although it is likely that some areas will score positively against some themes, and negatively against others.

Using the Sustainability Impact Assessment template

To complete the Sustainability Impact Assessment template, you should consider whether the Policy / Board Report / Committee Report / Service Plan / Project will have a positive or negative impact on each of the themes by placing a mark in the appropriate column. When you think there is likely to be an impact, please provide some annotations regarding the nature of the impact, and any actions that will be taken to address that impact. Users should note that not every theme will be relevant. Where this is the case the 'No Specific Impact' column should be marked. Users should also consider the following tips:

1. Make relative not absolute judgements (e.g. a new energy efficient service would score positively even if it consumes more energy than if no service were provided).
2. Be aware that small positive changes could be outweighed by negative ones (e.g. new energy efficient lighting in the short term may outweigh the benefits of maintaining current lighting).
3. If there are both positive and negative impacts, these need to be recorded in order to give a balanced view. Be objective and unbiased.
4. Concentrate on the most key significant issues - there is the potential to consider the appraisal in a very detailed way. This should be avoided at this stage.
5. Judge a proposal over its whole lifespan and remember that some impacts may change over different timescales.

If you require assistance in completing the Sustainability Impact Assessment please contact the Corporate Services Team
